1. Introduction

The European Commission is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data in the context of the event: RAMI workshop on Radiative Transfer Modelling support to EO metrology and Cal/Val activities. It explains the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to the RAMI workshop on Radiative Transfer Modelling support to EO metrology and Cal/Val activities undertaken by the Joint Research Centre of the European Commission, is presented below.

The specific registration tool is managed considering:

- Event organised by the JRC - outside the JRC.
- Personal data are NOT published on a publicly available website.
- Reports (including a presence list) is shared between participants and organisations.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: The Data Controller collects and further processes your personal data to provide you with information about the event: RAMI workshop on Radiative Transfer Modelling support to EO metrology and Cal/Val activities (before, during and after) and to process your application for participation in that event.

Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision-making including profiling.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data?

The processing operations on personal data, linked to the organisation, management, follow-up and promotion of the event (including web-streaming, photos, audio-visual recording) are necessary for the management and functioning of the Commission, as mandated by the Treaties. Those provisions are in particular, Article 51(2) of Regulation 2021/695 establishing Horizon Europe – the Framework Programme for Research and Innovation, laying down its rules for participation and dissemination and Article 11 of the Treaty on European Union and Article 15 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. Consequently, those processing operations are lawful under Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 (processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body).

Your consent is required for:

- ✓ the processing of your personal data relating to your dietary requirements and/or access requirements;
- ✓ the publication of your personal data contained in minutes, reports, PowerPoint presentations or relevant documentation used during meetings on a publicly available website or printed to illustrate communication material, photo albums and/or videos.
- ✓ the processing of your personal data for inviting you to future events the data controller may organise;
- ✓ ✓ the processing of your personal data for managing your subscription to a newsletter of the Data Controller. The processing of contact list and network partners at the JRC is covered by the Record “DPR-EC-00240 – Contact list & network partners databases at the JRC.
- ✓ the authorisation of taking, sharing and using individual and/or group photographs or audio-visual recordings photographed or filmed by the event’s photographer/cameraman.
 - By agreeing to this Privacy Statement, I authorise the EC:
 - to use without restriction the photographs and/or films bearing my image as described above in all types of publications, in any form of televisual broadcasting or communication via the Internet;
 - to include and archive these photographs and/or films in the European Union’s online databases and/or to share the photographs among participants accessible to the public free of charge online. Third parties having access to these databases may use the said photographs and/or films in compliance with the EC’s Decision on re-use of Commission’s documents (2011/833/EU) for information or education purposes only;

in order to illustrate or promote the activities or projects, past, present or future, of the European institutions and the European Union.

I hereby give my consent to the processing of my personal data to the extent necessary for the achievement of the purposes mentioned above. The EC guarantees that personal data relating to me are processed according to the rules set by the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725. Data may be archived by the EC.

I understand that I have the right, as data subject, to access data relating to me, to be informed about the existence and the extent of data processing, to rectify incorrect personal data as the case may be and to oppose further processing on serious and legitimate grounds. To exercise these rights, please contact the EC at the following address: ec-rami-webadmin@ec.europa.eu. This authorisation shall apply worldwide and for as long as my image is subject to legal protection. It can be withdrawn by informing the EC at the address mentioned above.

If you opt-in, you are giving us your explicit consent under Article 5(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 to process your personal data for those specific purposes. You can give your consent via a clear affirmative act by ticking the box(es) on the online registration form.

Your consent for these services can be withdrawn at any time:

- for unsubscribing from the newsletter, please send an email to ec-rami-webadmin@ec.europa.eu;
- for withdrawing consent that you have provided in order to benefit from other services, please contact the controller of the meeting/event ec-rami-webadmin@ec.europa.eu.

- The processing of your personal data for inviting you to future events the data controller may organise or for managing your subscription to a newsletter of the data controller. This specific case will be covered by Record "DPR-EC-00240 – Contact lists & network partners databases at the JRC"

4.1 Cookies

Cookies are short text files stored on a user's device (such as a computer, tablet or phone) by a website. Cookies are used for the technical functioning of a website (functional cookies) or for gathering statistics (analytical cookies).

The registration for the JRC Corporate Events/EU Science Hub takes place via a Commission website. The cookies employed by the Commission on the registrant's device for that purpose will be covered by the cookie policy of the Commission, which is available here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/cookies_en.

When you visit the website(s) of our event and when you register, we will keep the browser history of your visit for a maximum of 1 year according to Record "DPR-EC-00406 – E-services on JRC websites". In context of investigations of security incidents the data could be further processed following Record "DPR-EC-02886 – DIGIT Cybersecurity operations and services", where the same retention period applies. This information will then be deleted. The collection, aggregation and anonymising operations are performed in the data centre of the European Commission under adequate security measures.

Cookies are stored by Europa Analytics, the corporate service which measures the effectiveness and efficiency of the European Commission's websites on EUROPA. More information is available in the Record of Processing DPR-EC-00685 (Europa Analytics).

Enabling these cookies is not strictly necessary for the website to work but it will provide you with a better browsing experience. You can delete or block these cookies, but if you do that, some features of the meeting/event website may not work as intended.

The cookie-related information is not used to identify data subjects personally and the pattern data is fully under the Commission's control. These cookies are not used for any purpose other than those described here.

Should you wish to opt your personal data out of our anonymised, aggregated statistics, you can do so on our cookies page. In particular, you can control and/or delete those cookies as you wish.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Data Controller only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing.

For each of the categories of personal data that is processed, please find below the retention details and the reference to the relevant record of processing:

- ✓ All personal data related to the organisation and management of the event (this includes the information given during the registration, before, during or after the event) will be deleted two years after the last action in relation to the event.
- ✓ Sensitive personal data relating to dietary and/or access requirements will be deleted as soon as they are no longer necessary for the purpose for which they have been collected in the framework of the event, but no later than within 1 month after the end of the event.
- ✓ In case of individual and/or group photographs or videos of the event, the recordings will be kept for 2 years after the event before being deleted.
- ✓ Personal data shared with the Directorate-General for Human Resources and Security of the European Commission for the participants to gain access to Commission buildings is kept for 6 months after the termination of the link between the data subject and the Commission. More information is available in the Record of Processing:

- Ispra and/or Seville: DPR-EC-01239 – SECPAC or DPR-EC-01234 – Security Trustworthiness Check (Ispra) and DPR-EC-00521 – Access Control at JRC Seville
- Karlsruhe: DPR-EC-00659 – Entrance permission and access control for physical protection (ZES+ZKS) at JRC in Karlsruhe
- Geel: DPR-EC-01932 – Access control at JRC Geel
- Petten: DPR-EC-01959 – Access management system at the JRC in Petten and DPR-EC-01953 – Management of visitors data at the JRC in Petten.

Where needed, list of the participants is sent to the Security Service of the Commission for access control and entrance permission purposes by means of the relevant system used for registering visitors.

Personal data shared with the controller for future mailing purposes (e.g., for receiving newsletters or invitations to similar events) are processed in line with the Record “DPR-EC-00240 – Contact lists & network partners databases at the JRC”.

Selected service providers for organisational purposes (such as caterers, travel agents or event management organisations) are contractually bound to process personal data on behalf of and in line with the instructions of the data controller, keep confidential any data they process and protect it from unauthorised access, use and retention.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored on the servers of the European Commission. All processing operations are carried out pursuant to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

In order to protect your personal data, the Commission has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to the Commission staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to other authorised Commission staff according to the “need to know” principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

When explicitly agreed by you, some of your personal data (publications of minutes, reports, PowerPoint presentations or relevant documentation used during meetings, name and affiliation of participants and /or speakers) will be published on a publicly available website or printed to illustrate communication material, photo albums, etc. The photographs/videos could be shared with and used by the participants of the event in order to illustrate or promote the activities or projects, past, present or future, of the European institutions and the European Union.

7.1. International transfers

The information we collect will not be given to any third party, except to the extent and for the purpose we may be required to do so by law.

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, your personal data and to rectify them in case your personal data are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 on grounds relating to your particular situation.

You have consented to provide your personal data to the data controller for the present processing operation. You can withdraw your consent at any time by sending an email to the Data Controller. This contact information is given under Heading 9 below. The withdrawal of your consent will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before you have withdrawn the consent.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the data controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.

9. Contact information

- The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the Data Controller, ec-rami-webadmin@ec.europa.eu.

- The Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the Commission

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (DATA-PROTECTION-OFFICER@ec.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

- The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

You have the right to have recourse (i.e. you can lodge a complaint) to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the data controller.

10. Where to find more detailed information?

The Commission Data Protection Officer (DPO) publishes the register of all processing operations on personal data by the European Commission, which have been documented and notified to him. You may access the register via the following link: <http://ec.europa.eu/dpo-register>.

This specific processing operation has been included in the DPO's public register with the following Record reference: DPR-EC-00407 – JRC live, hybrid and digital events, seminars, workshops, conferences, meetings, open/celebration/information days with or without outside participants.
